ATTLEBORO HIGH SCHOOL

Dedication 2004

Dear Mrs. Kreiger and Mrs. Camelio

The class of 2004 would like to take this opportunity to thank our extraordinary advisors, Mrs. Nancy Krieger and Ms. Elaine Camelio. You have been a constant source of support and encouragement from the moment we entered high school as freshman. From Spirit Rallys to the Snowball to Proms, you have been our loudest cheerleaders and our most valuable team members. We know that it will be these same remarkable women waiting to congradulateeach and every student on Graduation daywith warm smiles and open arms. For all the hours of hard work you committed to us, for all your tremendous efforts, and for all the love you have demonstrated to us these past years we thank you and with all our hearts, dedicate this yearbook to you.

The Class of 2004

"Remember Our Yesterdays..."

As one chapter in our lives slowly but surely approaches its end, we must keep close the memories and experiences that have molded the people we are today. High school has been a different journey for each individual, but regardless of how we view these past four years, when we cross the football field for a final time in June, we will hold in our hearts something that this school has given us.

In September 2000, the class of 2004 entered the new world of Attleboro High School and was quickly swept away in its current. Seemingly tiny to the large and bulky seniors, we soon showed the high school who we were by tying the seniors for first at the Spirit Rally and then dropping them in the mud during the Tug O' War. Eventually, the boy's gymnastics team won the State Championship for the first time. Our year ended in the fabulously decorated cafeteria B1 at the Freshman Social.

The summer began and ended all too soon when the school started once again. This year, we knew exactly where each hallway led and there were now younger kids for us to shake our heads at. Everything seemed normal until tragedy struck our nation on September 11, 2001. No one will forget where they were or who told them about the terrible terrorist attack. But our class, along with the others, unified to show our loyalty and spirit during "Attleboro Cares" week. As the year continued, we soon settled into a routine, many facing much more difficult classes than the previous year. Some sophomores even succeeded in completing Miss Wilson's beastly research paper, the first of many in our high school careers. Almost every student celebrated their "Sweet Sixteen" and there were more surprise parties than anyone could count. We soon invaded the parking lot as we ventured into the previously unexplored world of driving. Our class held our Sophomore Gathering on a chilly day in March at our first dance away from the good old cafeteria. Sophomore year ended on a sadder note when our wonderful principal, Mrs. Martin was transferred to Coelho.

The summer whizzed by once again as many of us spent the better part of our vacation working. When school reopened on a rainy September 8, 2002, we entered as upperclassmen, finally moving up in the world. The fall traveled by quickly, and November became an eventful month for everyone. Remember that chemical mix that released a poisonous gas into the building? This mistake gave all students and faculty an unexpected day off, plenty of news coverage and left many people without keys to their cars. Soon after this memorable day, the majority of our class gathered to see some of our favorite men shake their bottoms to MC Hammer's "Can't Touch This" at Mr. AHS. The War in Iraq created frequent and heated discussions in many history classes throughout the building as some students began to take an increased interest in politics. With the beginning of the new year came meetings with our guidance counselors to discuss the burning question, "What will we do with our lives?" In the following months, we eagerly anticipated the coming of our first prom. On April 11th, when the day finally arrived after many weeks of tanning and highlighting for some, almost every junior was dismissed at ten-thirty to prepare for the blessed event. Our junior prom was held at Christina's in Foxboro on an unfortunately rainy and dreary night. However, the weather did not effect the wonderful time nor the memories created as we danced the night away to "Angel" by Aerosmith. As the end of the year approached and graduation occurred, many of us caught a little bit of "senioritis" as we eagerly anticipated the day when we too would walk across the stage...

"Live Your Todays..."

And then it happened. Finally, but quickly, it seems we walked through the doors of Attleboro High on September 3, 2003 for our last first day in this building. We are at last the leaders of the school, the seniors we have dreamed of being and I might add, very much enjoying. Although our beloved quarter classes are missing from our schedules, we are still relishing what promises to be the most memorable of all our years here. Everyone is still trying to decide what will happen after May as we ponder what we want to do. Guidance sees a few of us quite frequently, as our college deadlines grow dangerously close.

"Dream Your Tomorrows"

It is amazing to think that in a few months we will leave Attleboro High School forever, each person travelling down his or her own path, wherever that may lead. However, although things may change and new students will take our lockers and chairs, we have placed our mark on this high school forever and take with us the memories Attleboro High has in turn, bestowed upon us. The friendships forged, the experiences had and the memories we have yet to create will stay with us forever in our hearts. I wish each and every member of the class of 2004 success and happiness in the life you choose and I know that you will make our class proud.

Best Wishes to Everyone,
Caitlin Dugan

We are so...proud of you!

Dear Aaron,
Congratulations on your gradation from high school. We are proud of your achievements and wish you success in your new adventure in the U.S. Coast Guard. Fair winds and following seas.
Love,
Mom, Dad and Jeremy

Drew,
We love you and are so proud of you! 18 years ago Jesus gave us a little boy, 18 years ago our hearts were filled with joy.
All our love,
Mom and Dad

Drew,
You'll always be my baby boy, even though you're all grown up. I've been proud of you since the day you were born. I love you Drew-Drew!
-Mom

Jackie,
Your love of life,
yearning to learn,
willingness to share,
and strength and courage! We love you
for all of these reasons!
Love,
Mom and Dad

Amanda (the Princess)...
Words could never express how "proud" of you we are!! Through your entire life you have been extremely smart and you have always strived towards perfection. Always remember to study hard, challenge yourself and stay healthy (lol) through college and we know you will succeed!!
Congratulations...We all love you!
Dad, Mom and Zachary

Darren,
Congratulations, take all that you have acquired in High School. Stop and reflect on your success and your failures. Then move forward with a "focus."
Love,
Dad and Mom

Brian,
Where ever you go, or whatever you do, remember to look back.
Our love follows you.
From,
Mom, Dad and Brothers

Jonathan,
We are very proud of you.

Jared,
Congratulations on your many accomplishments. We wish you much success in all of your future endevauors as you enter a new chapter in your life.
Love,
Mom, Dad and Evan

Ben,
Some people look at the stars and gaze, others like you Ben see the stars and reach for them! Go For It!
Love,
Your Family

Megan,
When you were born we knew you were a champion, you have proved it in academics and sports, but most of all as our daughter. We are so proud of you.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Cynthia, Matthew, Kyle and Danielle

Richie,
Cherish all your memories in life. Time goes by so fast. Always do your best. Make smart choices, be happy and safe. We love you!
Love,
Mom, Dad and Nick.

Kaisha.

Paolo,

We cannot think of you without a smile coming to our faces. You light up a room with your infectious glow and endless humor. Your heart is as big as the universe and your wisdom far surpasses your age. You are a soldier and a general; a man among men. You are as delicate as a flower and as powerful as the sun. Our pride in your accomplishments we know will never end. We love you son.

We are so...proud of you!

Ashley (#14),
Congratulations. We are very proud of you. We wish you happiness and may all your dreams come true!
Love,
Mom, Dad, Ryan and Striker

Dear Casey,
We are so proud of you and all you have accomplished. Keep up the good work.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Mike and Kristi

Dear Taryn,
To my best friend, I love you. I'm so proud of you. Thank you for the past 18 years of happiness.I will always be there for you.Enjoy all life has to offer you.
Love, Mom XOXO

Adam,
You went from being Attleboro's most beautiful baby to our most wonderful son and we are very proud of you!
Love,
Dad and Mom

Sam,
From the day you were born you have been a joy in our lives. We wsh you the best of luck.
With all our love,
Aunt Sandy and family

Lindsay Zucarelli,
Congraulations. All your hard work and good grades got you to graduation. Continue on the same road and it will lead you to a successful future.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Mike and Amber

Spudnick-
Congratulations. Wishing you the best for a Wonderful Life!
Love,
Mom, Dad, Sabrina and Kelly

Katie,
We are very proud of you. Reach for the stars.
From,
Mom, Dad and Chris

SWEETHEART DANCE ...2004

A message from your editor...

Well, I can't really say that I'm sad the yearbook is complete because it has been a long road in getting here! I am very grateful to all those in the class who brought in pictures, voted, and helped out with names because we couldn't have done it without you. I'd also like to thank my teachers for being so supportive and understanding when I had a deadline to meet. I really didn't know what I was getting myself into when I joined the committee in the fall, and it was Mr. Burbank's focus and experience that helped us all get started. I still can't believe all of the effort and time he has put towards this task and the pleasant manner he always had in doing it. No matter what mood I was in at the end of school he could always make me laugh with his crazy sayings and habits. And Joyce, you may have joined the staff late, but you made up for it many times over through your dedication. I am part of an amazing senior class and I hope this book will always bring back fond memories of our time spent here together. It has been a privilege for me to be able to create this compilation of images and impressions which make up the class of 2004. Thanks,

Megan Colletto, Editor

Burbank, it's a tough job and you don't get the recognition you deserve!!
